A Note from Paul

We hear the term “chosen family” a lot in our community. Too often, queer people are disconnected from their birth families and turn to those around us who we meet at school, or at a bar, or online or any number of places to celebrate with and to rely on when we need. Truthfully, I think there can be an even greater bond with those around us who fall into this category because, as the name notes, we “chose” these people.

However, we all know that sometimes people come in and out of our lives. Friends we thought would be around forever, slowly drift away after some time. Acquaintances that never really registered much on our radar are suddenly there for decades. At times, we must work to build the relationships that are important to us, and other times they come so naturally that it’s hard to remember a time when they weren’t there.

Think of the friend who it doesn’t matter how long it is between conversations or visits – it feels like no time has passed. Remember the friend who you were so close to and now you can’t recall how space grew between you, but you still consider them an important part of your life.

It can be exhausting a lot of the time, but our lives are the shortest blink of an eye in the story of our world. Because of that the people who we fill it with are the most important part of it, and the ones we “chose” are often the highlights in our stories.

Tonight, this story is about a chosen family on stage. But it is also about you making the choice to include us as part of your “chosen family”. With the world being how it is, we need to surround ourselves with those who bring us joy and have our backs. Our pledge is to always tell stories that fill your soul and make you feel seen.

We are honored you have chosen to be with us here tonight, and every night you walk through our doors. To us, you are family.

Tonight, tomorrow, and always – thanks.

Director's Note

BLKS takes you on this wild rollercoaster ride, diving into a story about three black young women hitting the streets of New York, and witnessing their journey of being black, queer, and a woman, through comedy. Watching this feels like your average sitcom show, but being a part of this experience opens the lens of what black women continuously have to deal with, but still be strong, whether they want to or are forced to.

Directing this was important to me because there are always stories created to create a narrative about how black women fit a certain stereotype, but this play shows how intelligent, funny, and, most importantly, human they are. They feel. They're strong. And their identities are more than the stereotype we see all the time. June, Octavia, and Imani are not just characters; they are a part of all of us, and a reminder of how we are all similar.

They are love, and this play shows how loved they are.

Directing this has been pure joy for me. To be able to work at Out Front in this position has been a dream come true, and I can't thank Paul and the Out Front family enough for trusting me with this production. I'm thankful for my amazing design team and crew for bringing this vision to life. I'm thankful for my amazing cast for being so willing to go on this journey with me, and trusting in me and this process.

While I am extremely thankful to have such an amazing team, I couldn't finish this without giving a huge shoutout to the person who has been by my side with this, and that's the assistant director, Lauren. I can't thank you enough for everything you have provided to this production, from your wisdom as a director, to your experience as a black woman. Having you by my side has made this process such a joy, and I am forever thankful for you.

I thank you all for joining this journey on this wild night! Thank you for supporting black and LGBTQIA+ stories.

Robby Myles (He/Him)
Director, BLKS

COMMITMENTS & VALUES

MISSION

Out Front Theatre Company's mission is to tell LGBTQIA+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intergender, Asexual) stories.

VISION

Out Front Theatre Company's vision is to strengthen the LGBTQIA+ community in Georgia by exploring and celebrating the universal human experience through the lens of gender and sexuality.

EQUALITY, DIVERSITY, & INCLUSION COMMITMENT

The staff and board of Out Front Theatre Company want to put the following metrics in place so that we can track them to completion. We want our stakeholders and our patrons to see real results.

- We want to have representative board members from black and brown communities, as well as gender nonconforming representatives and increase that representation by at least 10% every year until we reach a goal of above 50%.
- We want to produce, support, or promote at least 2 shows/events from creatives of color every year and increase that number by at least 20% every year.
- We want to increase our presence in communities of color and in women's communities through intentional outreach. We can do this by creating a communication strategy to expand our patronage. To that end, we will recruit a community outreach intern or staff member to help achieve this goal.
- We want to increase our intersectional involvement by partnering with other socially progressive nonprofit organizations to collaborate on community events. The goal is to have at least one partner event per year with an ultimate goal of three per year.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We are gathered on the unceded land of the Mvskoke (Muscogee/Creek) peoples. We ask you to join us in acknowledging the Mvskoke community, their elders both past and present, as well as future generations. Out Front Theatre Company also acknowledges that it was founded upon exclusions and erasures of many Indigenous peoples, including those on whose land this institution is located.

This acknowledgment demonstrates a commitment to beginning the process of working to dismantle the ongoing legacies of settler colonialism.

CAST & CREW BIOS

CAST

TAYLOR PASQUALETTI-CAMPBELL

She/Her (Octavia) is a 2024 KSU alum with a degree in Theatre and Performance Studies, concentration in Acting, and a minor in Dance. Out Front: Debut. At Kennesaw, she had the pleasure of being part of many productions including Pride and Prejudice (Jane), Once on this Island (Andrea/Ensemble), and Love and Information (ensemble). She spent most of her first-year post-grad dancing in various productions at Six Flags Over Georgia, including Nightshades, Surfin USA, Rockin in Rockville, and the Six Flags Holiday Spectacular. She would like to say a thank you to her family and friends, without which, none of this would be possible, to all the wonderful people at Out Front for giving her a platform to do what she loves, and to Octavia, for allowing her to find herself in such a fun, yet important, story to tell. She hopes you enjoy the show!

KIERRA DANIELLE She/Her (Imani) HOLY MOLEY! She is excited to be back working with Out Front Theatre to tell this action-packed story! Previous Out Front Credits Immediate Family. Other Credits include A Madeline's Christmas (Horizon Theatre), Pass The Okra (SheARTsATL), Angels of the Southern Accent. (Onstage Atlanta), Stop Kiss (The Blackout Company), For The Love Of Mahalia Jackson (Encore), In the Red and Brown Water (Givens Performing Arts Center), Shipwrecked (Kannapolis Arts Center). Kierra is a dynamic actress with a gift for captivating audiences through raw emotion or perfectly timed comedic charm. She thanks her family and God for always supporting her!

TATYANA MACK She/Her (June) is excited to be back on the Out Front stage! Previous Out Front Theatre credits: The Prom. Previous Atlanta credits: Cabaret, Urinetown, Prayer for the French Republic (Actor's Express), POTUS (Synchronicity Theatre Company), Jaja's African Hair Braiding (True Colors Theatre). Regional: Miami Bus Stop Stories (Juggerknot Theatre Company), Heroes in my House (Fantasy Theatre Factory), The Polar Express Train Ride (Warner Bros). Education: B.F.A, Musical Theatre, New World School of the Arts. She thanks everyone who has supported her throughout her artistic journey! Follow her @TatyanaMack on instagram.

SYDNEY NERIAH JONES She/Her (Ry) is thrilled to be making her ATL acting debut at Out Front Theatre. After deciding to pursue acting just over two years ago, Sydney has starred in productions such as Little Shop of Horrors, Shakespeare in Love, and The Drowsy Chaperone. She most recently appeared in a showcase with Disney ABC and Hulu. While Sydney's career may be just beginning, whether it's film/TV or theatre, she's ready to dive in headfirst!

TONY GEORGE He/Him (Justin) is thrilled to be back on the Out Front stage in the production of BLKS! Previous Out Front Theatre credits include: At The Wedding (Victor). Previous theatre credits include: Butterflies (Synchronicity Theatre), Lost Colony (Roanoke Island Historical Association), Tecumseh! (Scioto Society), Woyzeck (Rylander Theatre). Some educational productions include: The Seagull, The Flick, and Arcadia. He has also acted in several short/independent films here in Atlanta. He is a model for Click Models of Atlanta and has done runway shows for Joshua Kane, Americas Mart, Paris Laundry, and Angels of Life Charity. He's thankful for his friends and family, near, far, and across the water that support him in every step he takes. He wants to dedicate this performance to his Aunt Tasha, who forever reminds him that he can do anything through God who gives him strength. You can follow him on Insta @theboi_george Amber has her B.A. in Theatre and Performance Studies from Kennesaw State University and is an M.F.A. candidate at the University of Idaho where she studies Directing. Amber would like to thank her friends and family for their continued love and support! Sankofa!

A NOTE ON LISTENING

BLKS is not here to be explained.
BLKS is here to be heard.

Playwright Aziza Barnes asked audiences to listen
the way you listen to people who are alive.
Not neat, not linear, not waiting to be translated.

Bodies. Jokes. Hunger. Memory.
Language said out loud.
Things repeated because they matter.
Things interrupted because life does that.

You don't have to "get it" to listen.

Listen
for what feels familiar, funny, uncomfortable, or too close.

Listen
without rushing to turn BLK language into metaphor.

Listen
without asking it to behave.

Just maybe keep in mind Aziza said:
this play is about BLK women being alive.

WHO WE ARE

Out Front Theatre Company was established to tell stories of the LGBTQIA+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intergender, Asexual) experience and community, giving voice to LGBTQIA+ authors, composers, artists, and creators through the medium of theatre and the performing arts. Out Front plans to develop new works and produce classic pieces of theatre that have communicated these stories of the LGBTQIA+ population to a wider audience over time.

As a non-profit organization with a dedicated focus to better the LGBTQIA+ population, we strive to:

- Produce established works and premiere productions created by members of the LGBTQIA+ society,
- Generate productions with universal themes which are important to the LGBTQIA+ community,
- Educate the populous to LGBTQIA+ history,
- Work with local and national LGBTQIA+ organizations to bring awareness of issues facing the LGBTQIA+ to the greater Atlanta area,
- Create artistic and educational opportunities for at-risk LGBTQIA+ youths by collaborating with local educational institutions and organizations,
- Expand the number of theatrical opportunities for artists who are members of or who support the LGBTQIA+ community.

Out Front hopes to create a narrative that will reach beyond the stage, into the conversations and minds our audiences and artists. Theatre's power as a catalyst to spur dialogues goes back thousands of years. Out Front lives to continue that grand tradition of bringing the stories of the LGBTQIA+ people into the spotlight.

LGBTQIA+ Definitions

L stands for Lesbian: Term used to describe female identified people attracted romantically, erotically, and/or emotionally to other female identified people.

G stands for Gay: Term used in some cultural settings to represent male identified people who are attracted to other male identified people in a romantic, erotic and/or emotional sense. Also, a term used to refer to the LGBTQIA+ community as a whole or as an individual identity label for anyone who does not identify as heterosexual.

B stands for Bisexual: A person emotionally, physically, and/or sexually attracted to people of more than one sex and/or gender. This attraction does not have to be equally split between genders and there may be a preference for one gender over others.

T stands for Transgender: A person who lives as a member of a gender other than that expected based on anatomical sex. Sexual orientation varies and is not dependent on gender identity. This term is sometimes used to refer to the gender variant community as a whole.

Q stands for Queer: An umbrella term, which embraces a matrix of sexual preferences, orientations, and habits of the not-exclusively-heterosexual-and-monogamous majority. Queer includes lesbians, gays, bisexuals, transpeople, intersex persons, and many other sexually transgressive explorers. The term is sometimes used as a sexual orientation label instead of 'bisexual' as a way of acknowledging that there are more than two genders to be attracted to, or as a way of stating a non-heterosexual orientation without having to state who they are attracted to.

I stands for Intergender: Intergender people have a gender identity that is in the middle between the binary genders of female and male, and may be a mix of both.

A stands for Asexual: A term describing individuals who do not experience sexual attraction or do not have interest in or desire for sex. Asexuality is different from celibacy, which means abstaining from sex. Asexuality is often viewed as a spectrum - meaning there are varying levels and identities regarding someone's emotional, spiritual and romantic attraction. The best way to refer to the asexual community is to use the umbrella term "ace" or "aces" as in the "ace community," which acknowledges that spectrum.

+ stands for Many Other Identifications including, but not limited to pansexual, genderqueer, polysexual, agender, androsexual, demisexual, and skoliosexual. We strive to be as inclusive as we can and know we can always improve.

Please visit outfronttheatre.com for a more expansive list of identities, sexualities, terms, resources and more

We welcome all humans, regardless of labels, and hope we celebrate and accept everyone regardless of how they identify.

A poster for the play "Which Way to the Stage". The title is written in a stylized, glowing font. "Which Way" is in pink, "to the" is in blue, and "STAGE" is in large, illuminated red letters with a yellow outline. The background features a brick wall and a trash can. The OutFront Theatre Company logo is in the top left corner. The text "By Ana Nogueira" is at the bottom left, and "MAR 12-28, 2026" is at the bottom right.
